Our Wisconsin Student Facilitator

Anticipated Start Date: Late August 2019
End Date: Mid October 2019 (eligible for renewal)
Salary: $12.00 per hour (hours vary depending on demand of the program)

Description:

Our Wisconsin is a workshop that explores dimensions of inclusion through dialogue and activities related to community building. Facilitators are responsible for guiding individuals in discussing issues of inclusion and diversity. As an Our Wisconsin facilitator, you will learn to...

1. Further your own and others’ understanding about other identities, cultures, and disadvantaged populations
2. Reflect on your own and others’ heritages, perspectives, and experiences, and explore how they have shaped you.
3. Listen to and believe when individuals from groups that you are not part of share your experiences.
4. Intervene and speak up for yourself and individuals within your community when you are mistreated, disrespected, or devalued.

The ideal Our Wisconsin facilitator...

- Has baseline knowledge about diversity, social justice, and/or inclusion.
- Communicates effectively within a diverse team of individuals.
- Is open to challenging their own social ideologies.
- Has experience facilitating discussion and activities around identity.

Please note:

Facilitators are required to attend a brief training during April 2019 and an intensive 3 day training session in late August 2019.

Students from all disciplines are encouraged to apply by January 25, 2019. Inquiries related to the position may be submitted to Aaminah Long, aaminah.long@wisc.edu
